

YOU Are Here at the heart of Honor Foundation

Honor Foundation exists to honor your desire to make a difference in people's lives. It reflects mutual respect and family values, offering help which is direct and personal. Whether you are donating or receiving that help,

you are at the heart of all we do.

CEO Jackie Felling and her mother, Doris.

In 1886, Degree of Honor was formed because railroad workers couldn't get insurance. When someone's husband died, wives pooled donations to provide financial support. We still care about families today and our outreach goes beyond insurance.

We Keep Things SIMPLE

Charity is a gift shared in the spirit of kindness. That's why Honor Foundation gifts come without a lot of strings, or rules or hoops. Like a gesture from a friend.

Your Gift Feels PERSONAL

Four siblings were able to stay together, thanks to Darlene, who adopted them all. A Family Grant from Honor Foundation assisted with educational expenses.

You know those who are helped. They're people like your family, neighbors, fellow members, and those under the radar when disaster strikes.

YOUR VALUES

Are Our Values

Honor Foundation reflects the values our members have in common - supporting faith in God, commitment to families, and love of country.

EVERY PENNY Goes to Work

A newborn baby girl had to be flown to a hospital to receive treatment for a heart ailment. Her parents were able to stay free-of-charge at the nearby Ronald McDonald House, a charity supported by Honor Foundation.

Degree of Honor covers Honor Foundation's administrative costs, so 100% of your donation reaches people in need.

In the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina, Shandra hugged the blankets and Bible provided by Honor Foundation.
